ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

D.A.R.E. Ltd. wish to thank:

- the IUF Steering Group for their advice, guidance and assistance during the course of this research project: Helen Lawless, Dr. Mary Tubridy, Alan Craig and David Rowe. Special thanks to Helen who was available to the research team on a daily basis and gave freely of her knowledge and time;
- the study team associates: Betty Duignan, Declan Peelo, Dr. John Newell, Dr. Carl Scarrott and Gloria Avalos;
- Dr. Brendan Dunford (BurrenLife), Dr. Eileen O'Rourke (Bio-Up Project) and Atkins/Phillip Farrelly & Co. (High Nature Value Farming in Ireland) for providing information on their respective projects.

Our very special thanks to all the members of the farming community, local residents and agency/organisation representatives in each of the three study areas who gave their time, knowledge and expertise to answer our questions and attend the public workshops.

On behalf of the IUF we would like to thank the Heritage Council and the Department of Community, Rural and Gaeltacht Affairs for their support of this research.
